

feel it is time to move on to other forms of orchestral music, perhaps a symphony or a sinfonietta. Another project that would interest me greatly is a ballet score. I have already written two suites of dances for large orchestra but have not had the funds to pay for so many players. I live in hope!

CHRISTOPHER BALL

OMNIBUS CLASSICS CC5003

"Deeply attractive music...an instant winner...brims with life...uninhibited rhythmic drive" MUSICWEB INTERNATIONAL
"an alluring sound world, magically scored...heart-warming intensity... a ravishing sound" THE STRAD

"this sumptuous aural feast"
RECORDS INTERNATIONAL

"exquisite music...an individual voice, worthy of the highest praise"
CLASSIC FM MAGAZINE

ONLINE FROM: the.classicslabels.com

QUANTUM CD 7040

CLARINET CONCERTO:

"beautiful, engaging and hauntingly mellifluous...a composer of rare brilliance...a memorably lyrical slow movement... a virtuosic conclusion Leslie Craven is the ideal interpreter"

FLUTE CONCERTO:

"this excellent piece" [James Galway]
"Adam Walker makes an impressive debut"

PAN MAGAZINE

FOUR DANCES

"utterly attractive and swaggeringly cheerful music" MUSICWEB INTERNATIONAL

ONLINE FROM: www.euravent.co.uk

RECORDER CONCERTO / OBOE CONCERTO

"challenging works played with authority and obvious affection by Paul Arden-Taylor...superbly crafted highly attractive and entertaining music...an invigorating collection... sheer joy throughout" CLASSIC FM MAGAZINE

ONLINE FROM: www.dinmore-records.co.uk

THE MUSIC OF CHRISTOPHER BALL IS PUBLISHED BY EMERSON EDITION

www.JuneEmerson.co.uk